

Nareit® International Corporate Member Benefits

Nareit international corporate membership is a company membership that is only available to REITs and stock-exchange listed real estate operating companies (REOCs) based outside of the U.S.

Each day Nareit represents its members by communicating to the public, policymakers and the global investment community about how the benefits of REIT-based real estate investment is all about real estate working for you.

One of our goals is to show how REITs operating as real estate companies help serve the public's interest whether the public is seen individually as members of a community, investors saving for the future or consumers who require goods and services made available through the use of real estate. ”

— Steven A. Wechsler
President & CEO, Nareit

As a corporate member, you'll benefit from political advocacy, exclusive access to investors, member-only events, research, data, publications, communication toolkits, savings, increased visibility and more. You'll also be able to actively engage with Nareit staff and other corporate members on issues of interest.
